ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

The Wired festival brings upfront music, innovative audiovisual and electronic art, new media and live cinema together in the shape of a mini-festival. Next to all of that there will be a small fashion surprise aswell (check the timetable for more information!).

Wired is about experiencing art in a very easy accessible way and in a natural atmosphere. Wired serves as a platform for art disciplines that are generally not suited for art galleries, music halls or theatres.

The first edition of the Wired festival took place last July at De Besturing in The Hague featuring live music from Aux Raus, Adolf Butler, The Wooden Constructions, The Moi Non Plus, Gameboys A Gogo, Klopje Popje, The Routines and Organisms. Next to the music program we invited the following artists to create an Interactive Playground of visual art installations: Yacine Sebti, Mike Rijnierse, Bas de Boer, Marcus Graf, Jessica de Boer, Gosse de Kort and Eelco de Vries.

Saturday December 19th will bring us the second special winter edition of Wired namely Winter Wired '09. We've picked BINK 36 as venue for the festival as it offers huge area's at an unique industrial location: the former KPN building in De Binckhorst.

Explore and experience!

ABOUT VILLANUTS

Villanuts is a platform for young artists and serves as meeting point for students and graduates from various art programmes and like-minded. Villanuts offers young artists the possibility to gain experience where it comes to requesting subsidies, networking, submitting a concrete plan of work, budgetting, designing an exhibition and the actual presentation of the artists' work.

For more info on Villanuts' events and activities visit: www.villanuts.nl.
